

BVU practice (Units 30-38)

1. Pronunciation: read these sentences out loud

1. The costs incurred while the plant is idle include the fixed costs, such as depreciation, property taxes, or the plant manager's salary.
2. The factory supplies electrical components for cars.
3. Recycling aims to salvage as much value as possible from retired products.
4. Online reviews heavily influence millennials' purchasing decisions.

2. Vocabulary

1. In order to attain self-reliance on power, Binani Cement has set up three units of c..... pl..... (eigen elektriciteitscentrales) with a total of 70 MW power generation, capable of meeting 100% of its power requirement.
2. Products that have been returned to HP for a variety of reasons and then put through a rigorous re-manufacturing process are less expensive. Buying these ref.....
pr..... can save you a lot of money.
3. Virtually all Microsoft software, including the Windows family of operating systems and Microsoft Office, is owned by the company. Obviously, there are always major restrictions on the use of this pr..... software.
4. Facebook, AirBnb and Uber are a few of a growing number of businesses creating a s..... e....., where online technology is used to help people share assets, resources, time and skills.
5. The shortage of raw materials forced the company to o..... far below c.....
6. It has been just over 100 years since Henry Ford introduced the modern
..... (lopende band) and forever changed the course of manufacturing.
7. A (onderaannemer) is needed when the work falls outside of your expertise area or when your resources are already assigned to a different project.
8. A housing bubble is a run-up in home prices fuelled by demand, speculation, and exuberance, which when demand falls while supply increases.
9. A 2018 study found that thousands of premature deaths could have been prevented if the (minimumloon) had been higher.
10. Axis Health operates numerous brands in the healthcare sector with a vision to be Australia's leading (leverancier) of medical equipment.

3. Translation

1. Wij gebruiken al jaren elektronische facturatie.
2. Sinds 2000 zijn al ongeveer 1,7 miljoen banen in de industrie verloren gegaan aan robots.
3. Het vernieuwend bedrijfsmodel van de ondernemers heeft gelukkig een aantal geldschietters overtuigd.